

WILSON FORWARDS PEACE NOTE

VON MACKENSEN IS DRIVING FOWARD IN HOT PURSUIT OF THE ROUMANIAN ARMY

FRESH ADVANCES MADE ALONG THE ENTIRE LINE, SAYS GERMAN WAR OFFICE.

IMPORTANT RAILROAD TAKEN

ON SOMME FRONT ALLIES ATTEMPT TO ADVANCE BUT ARE REPULSED, IS CLAIMED.

While the Russians along the Carpathian ranges and the allies in Macedonia keep up their offensive, the advance of the German allies in Roumania continues. World interest in the progress of the war is still centered upon the Roumanian theatre of operations, where mile by mile the German allies are eating up the Roumanian kingdom. By the capture of all the territory south of the Bucharest-Cernavoda railroad, announced today, the German allies come into control of that highly strategic line of communication, and the way is open for a fresh advance against the Roumanian flank. All of the Roumanian kingdom is now in the hands of the German allies except the north-eastern part of Wallachia, the northern end of Dobruja and Moldat provinces.

(International News Service.)
Berlin, Dec. 14.—Fresh advances have been made by Von Mackensen's armies along the entire Roumanian front, the war office reported today. The important railroad between Bucharest and Cernavoda is now completely in German hands. This railway is one of great strategic importance and is the only line connecting Bucharest with the Black Sea coast. The Russians in the Carpathians continue their assaults without gaining any advantage.

On the Somme and Verdun fronts after strong artillery preparations, French patrols attempted an advance in the Argonne but were repulsed.

CONSTANTINE HAS TROOPS VERY NEAR KATERINA.

(International News Service.)
London, Dec. 14.—King Constantine has massed a considerable force of Greek troops around Katerina in dangerous proximity to the left flank of the allied army in Macedonia. It is indicated by advices received here today. Recently Katerina was the scene of fighting between Greek loyalists and Venizelist troops. Afterwards a detachment of French marines was sent there to preserve order.

(Note:—A wireless dispatch from Berlin yesterday reported that fighting between the Greek and entente troops has already begun at Katerina. According to the above dispatch the allies were driven from the town and it was occupied by the Greeks.)

HALL IS CONFIDENT THAT MUSCLE SHOALS WILL WIN

Returns From Washington Convinced That Site of Nitrate Plant Will Soon Be Designated

W. R. Hall, president of the Albany Board of Commerce, has returned from Washington, where he attended the sessions of the National Rivers and Harbors congress as the representative of the local commercial organization of which he is the head. Mr. Hall was honored by the congress by election as one of the national directors.

While away, Mr. Hall visited Chattanooga briefly where he conferred with one of the four applicants for the position of secretary of the Albany Board of Commerce. At a meeting of the directors of the board to be held tomorrow afternoon it is probable that some action will be taken toward the selection of a secretary.

AUSTRIAN CABINET HAS ALSO RESIGNED

SPITZMULLER HAS BEEN ENTRUSTED WITH FORMATION OF NEW GOVERNMENT.

(International News Service.)
London, Dec. 14.—The resignation of the Austrian cabinet, which was reported from Amsterdam last night, was interpreted here today as part of the domestic unrest in the central empire that led to the peace proposals. Emperor Charles has entrusted the task of forming a new ministry to Alexander Spitzmueller.

(Note:—The retiring cabinet headed by Premier Von Kourber was formed on Nov. 1.)

Beautiful Opening of Thompson Drug Store

Large Crowd Attends Formal House Warming of New Pharmacy.

The formal opening of Thompson's Drug Store in its new home, corner Grant street and Second avenue, yesterday afternoon, was a most pleasing occasion, and was largely attended. The interior and exterior finishings of the store were much admired.

During the hours of the opening, music was rendered by Varnelle's orchestra. Punch was served all who attended by Misses Mary Grace Sanders and Margaret Curry, while candy was served the ladies by Misses Rowena Cornish, Mary Penick and Kathleen Almon. Cigars were passed to the men by George Todd and Billie McCurry. In addition many useful souvenirs were distributed.

Mr. Thompson, the genial host, assisted by Mrs. Thompson, welcomed the guests as they arrived.

Attractive Building.
The building itself, owned by Altee Hoff, was much admired. Mr. Hoff spared no expense in fashioning the store according to Mr. Thompson's ideas. He installed steam heat, electric lights and all the modern conveniences, and has made it one of the most modern and attractive business buildings in the cities.

W. T. SEAMONS DIES AFTER AN ILLNESS OF FIVE WEEKS

BELOVED CITIZEN OF ALBANY SUCCEUMS TO ATTACK OF PNEUMONIA.

William T. Seamons, known and beloved by many friends in Morgan and Lawrence counties, quietly passed away last night at 8 o'clock at his home at 239 Johnston street after an illness of five weeks with pneumonia. It became known several days ago that Mr. Seamons was critically ill. Heart trouble added to the seriousness of the illness and he breathed his last without a struggle.

The funeral of Mr. Seamons will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church of Albany. The Masonic fraternity will have the funeral in charge, the Masons gathering at the home at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

By the request of Mr. Seamons himself last Monday three of the pallbearers will be former members of the Moulton lodge of Masons with whom Mr. Seamons was associated in the days of his young manhood. These are George Russell, Will Howell and James Walker. The other pallbearers will be selected by Worshipful Master W. R. McCluskey of Rising Sun Lodge No. 29 of Decatur. All Master Masons are invited to participate in the fraternal exercises. Interment will be at City cemetery tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. Seamons is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Fred Smith and Mrs. R. A. Worley, both of Albany.

Native of Lawrence County.

Born in Moulton, Lawrence county, on July 23, 1853, Mr. Seamons was 63 years of age. He was married May 20, 1880, at Moulton and Mr. and Mrs. Seamons moved here nineteen years ago from his Lawrence county home. He engaged in mercantile pursuits and was successful. Mr. Seamons became a member of the Moulton lodge of Masons almost 40 years ago.

Mr. Seamons was widely known throughout North Alabama. He was of a quiet, generous nature and made and kept many friends. In his last hours his mind went back to the days of his childhood in Lawrence county and he then selected the three pallbearers as given above. His death was a great shock.

London, Dec. 14.—England is preparing to call 1,000,000 additional men to the colors. A supplemental estimate issued today provides for the calling of these men during the present financial year. They are to serve in all ranks. The original estimate was for 4,000,000 men.

LAWSON G. BEAN, BELOVED CITIZEN OF FALKVILLE, DIES

WAS BROTHER OF MRS. WM. E. SKEGGS AND MRS. JAMES L. ECHOLS OF TWIN CITIES.

Lawson G. Bean, aged 79, of Falkville, died yesterday at his home after an illness of ten days. Mr. Bean has been in declining health for the past six months and his condition took a turn for the worse last week. His death was a great shock to his hundreds of friends and relatives throughout Morgan county. It was believed that Mr. Bean was related to more people than any man in the county.

Mr. Bean is survived by his wife and the following children: John, William, Walter and Joseph, and Mrs. Mary Walling, Mrs. Kate Patterson, all of this county, and Mrs. Petty, of Florida. Mr. Bean's sisters are: Mrs. William E. Skeggs, of Albany, wife of the probate judge, and Mrs. James L. Echols, of Albany.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Falkville from the residence of Mrs. Dinsmore, the mother of Mrs. Bean. Mr. Bean was a member of the Christian church.

Mr. Bean was born August 23, 1837. When he was 17 years of age he enlisted in the Confederate army as a soldier of the South and served until the close of the war. He was a son of Major Benjamin F. Bean.

A number of residents of Albany and Decatur went to Falkville today to attend the funeral of Mr. Bean.

IMMIGRATION BILL PASSES THE SENATE

BIG MAJORITY OF 61 TO 7 RECORD FOR BILL WITH LITERACY TEST.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Dec. 14.—Hurting defiance at the threat of presidential veto, the senate this afternoon passed the immigration bill providing the literacy test to aliens seeking admission to the United States by a vote of 61 to 7.

Germans Deny Any Inhumanity to Belgians

(International News Service.)
Washington, Dec. 14.—Germany's reply to the American protest against the deportation of Belgians to Germany reached the state department this morning. The note, it is understood, denies any inhumanity on the part of Germany in taking Belgian workmen to Germany, pointing out that they are idle and are "better off" working in German industrial plants than they had been in Belgium in enforced idleness.

State Department Says President Was Only Asked to Send Document to Powers

PRESIDENT WITHHOLDS ANY SUGGESTION

White House Yet in Doubt as to Course of Mediation to be Pursued by U. S.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Dec. 14.—Germany's announcement that she is ready to discuss peace with her enemies is now en route to the capitals of the entente allies.

It reached here early today from Joseph C. Grew, counsellor of the American embassy at Berlin.

The note, which officials say differs only in the most minor phraseology from the original as wirelessly by the International News Service from Berlin, was decoded and copies supplied to Secretary Lansing and President Wilson.

The president directed that the note be sent to the several nations to whom it was addressed immediately.

Chief Clerk Ben Davis of the state department immediately recoded the instrument and it was replaced on the cables.

Announcement was soon afterwards made at the state department that the note "will go forward at once."

The department added that it has "received no request other than to transmit the communication."

President Wilson is not yet decided whether he will follow the note with another suggestion from this government as the leading neutral nation, asking that it be given the most careful consideration, and again proffering the good offices of this government in any plan of mediation that may be devised to end the war.

The president, White House officials said today, still is very much in doubt as to what is the best course to be pursued. All the communications which may pass back and forth to the belligerents must go through the state department. The reply of the entente when drafted will be sent here for transmission to the capitals of the central powers.

It was made very plain at the White House today that the president believes the German proposals should be considered on their merits by the nations to whom they are addressed.

The fact that the German note was unaccompanied by no other request than that it be sent forward, was considered significant.

Charge Grew sent along with the note a confidential communication to the president, which was not made public.

FEW ENGLISH NEWSPAPERS WANT PEACE CONSIDERED

(International News Service.)
London, Dec. 14.—When President Wilson brings to the attention of the entente governments the peace proposal note of the central powers it is probable that he will express his willingness to convey any terms the entente may have to offer.

In political circles, however, it is regarded as most unlikely that the American executive will go any further than this.

The press continues to dissect and attack the peace offering, but it is noticed that there is a disposition on the part of a minority of the newspapers to believe that the proposals should at least be considered. This is as far as they go. None counsels the acceptance of the Teutonic offer.

In the meantime conversations are passing back and forth between the allied capitals relative to the reply that should be made to the Teutonic allies, if it is believed expedient to make any answer at all.

The Times again declares the proposals cannot be considered.

The Daily News is one of the minority of newspapers that believes the proposals should be considered.

The Manchester Guardian, the leading Liberal newspaper in the United Kingdom, takes the view it would put England in the wrong light in the eyes of neutrals, if she refused to exchange views with Germany.

PREMIER BRIAND WARNS AGAINST PEACE PROPOSALS.

(International News Service.)
Paris, Dec. 14.—A warning headed by Premier Briand in the chamber of deputies against German peace proposals was hailed today by the press as sound advice to be considered seriously. The premier's speech is regarded as France's answer to the peace proposition of Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German chancellor, although the peace note has not yet been formally handed in by the neutral emissaries.

That the various branches of the government are in accord and that the view expressed by the premier struck the popular chord was shown by the fact that the chamber adopted a resolution of confidence in the reconstructed government.

PRESIDENT RECEIVES COPY OF PROPOSAL.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Germany's offer to discuss peace as communicated to American Charge Grew at Berlin was received at the state department today. It was soon decoded and laid before Secretary Lansing immediately after he reached his desk this morning.

A copy was also rushed to the White House and taken to the president in his study. He at once began consideration of the official text of the German chancellor's statement and the Teutonic allies.

A confidential message from Charge Grew accompanied the note.

It is recalled that yesterday German diplomatic sources announced that "Berlin had learned" that both Switzerland and Spain were "to use their influence" to have the entente powers give careful consideration to the peace suggestion.

T. A. Bowles is Highly Honored By Shriners

Local Banker Elected as Representative to Imperial Council at Minneapolis.

Dr. J. A. Gunter and T. A. Bowles have just returned from Birmingham, where they attended the meeting of Zamora Temple, Order of the Mystic Shrine, held there last night.

At the meeting, Mr. Bowles was highly honored by being elected one of the four representatives to the Imperial Council of the Shrine, which meets at Minneapolis, Minn., in July, 1917. But four representatives were chosen, and the vote received by Mr. Bowles was unusually flattering. The distinction is one of the highest which the temple can confer. Two of the other representatives were chosen from Birmingham, and one from Tuscaloosa.

WILLIAM T. SEAMONS.

In the death of William T. Seamons last night Albany lost one of its kindest and most lovable men. Born in Moulton, Ala., 63 years ago, Mr. Seamons counted his friends in Lawrence and Morgan counties by the hundreds.

There are many who are mourning with the bereaved family today in their hour of sorrow. After the book of life has been closed and the final word written by the Moving Finger there is little that can be said for or against a man save his faithfulness to his family and friends.

Measured by this standard, no man stood higher in the community. Mr. Seamons' genial nature will be missed.

First Snow Falls;
Rain or Snow Tonight

Indications Are of Warmer Weather For Tomorrow.

Fifteen gusts of snow began falling in Decatur and Albany shortly before noon today. All afternoon the snow came in small flurries, giving promise of a big white Christmas in North Alabama.

In Birmingham today sleet is falling. In Gadsden it is snowing. In Memphis and other southern cities there is a fall of "the beautiful." Railroad trains coming south this morning from Nashville, Louisville and Cincinnati bore heavy burdens of snow and ice on the coach tops.

The temperature here this morning was 23 degrees above zero, according to the local weather bureau. The lowest temperature yesterday was 28 degrees.

Rain or Snow Tonight.

According to the weather prediction for tonight and Friday, North Alabama will have either rain or snow tonight.

J. H. Vogan Stricken
With Paralysis Attack

J. H. Vogan, a popular employee of the Louisville & Nashville shops, was stricken with paralysis this morning at 3 o'clock at his home at No. 322 Sherman street. At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Vogan had not regained consciousness and his recovery was considered as doubtful by physicians. The sudden illness of Mr. Vogan was a great shock to his friends over the city and they are hoping that he will ultimately recover, although little hope is given them by the physicians.

Mr. Vogan is assistant foreman of the blacksmith shop of the local shops.

ATHENS NEWS

Mrs. T. E. Knight spent the week-end with her relatives here. Her host of friends who know her better as Miss Rebecca Williams, were so sorry of her very short stay, as so many missed seeing her. She sang in her old place in the M. E. choir Sunday evening, and if it is possible, her voice was richer and lovelier than of yore. She will always be accorded a hearty welcome in Athens. She returned to Decatur where many entertainments had been planned for the remainder of her visit there before returning to her home in Greensboro.

Mrs. Garth and lovely little daughter have returned home after a visit of some weeks to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hightower. Her many friends will be glad to know of Mr. Garth's decided improvement in the west, where he has gone to seek health.

Mrs. M. McCoy Hilly, of the Panama Canal Zone, is here to spend the holdays with her mother and loved ones. She is cordially welcomed.

The fourth Lyceum number will be given at the college music hall today.

December 14. The Opera Chimes of Normandy is the treat which is in store. The entire Lyceum course has been very attractive and entertaining and the future numbers promise to be fully as good as those we have had.

The lovely reception tendered our pastor, Dr. Simpson, his wife and daughter, at the college, was largely attended and enjoyed, as are all entertainments given by Mrs. Glasgow and her co-workers.

Dr. Simpson is rapidly becoming acquainted in Athens, where he was not an entire stranger, and his sermons are good, better and best, the last one always best. We bespeak for him universal popularity in Athens, and hope his stay will prove a blessing to our church and our city.

LOVE HIDES A MULTITUDE OF FAULTS.

In one of the attractive stores on Second avenue, Wednesday afternoon was seen a little girl, a tot of about 8, we should judge. Under each arm she held, wrapped in a little blanket, a measley, smutty, sleepy-eyed kitten. When asked why she had brought them, she answered: "I wanted them to see Santa Claus."

Here is just a little simple heart story: one for the Yuletide—when everything should be love and affection for the least of these.

COTACO LITERARY CLUB.

Mrs. Felix Robertson was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the Cotaco Literary club. The subject for study was "Doom of Divine Right in England," led by Mrs. Ike Scheer. Miss Rosa Cartwright gave a Christmas reading, and Victrola selections, with a delicious salad course made the social hour one of unusual pleasure. As souvenirs a clever little Santa was presented to each one present. The decorations were of the Christmas season.

MUSIC STUDY MEETING POSTPONED.

Because of the teachers' institute convening here on December 20, the Christmas program to have been given by the Music Study club for the pupils of the school, has been postponed. School closes on Tuesday for the holidays.

J. M. GOINS, AGED CONFEDERATE, DIES

LIVED WITH HIS SON, C. L. GOINS; CITIZEN OF ALBANY FOR THE PAST TEN YEARS.

James Monroe Goins, aged 72, a citizen of Albany for the past ten years, died yesterday of heart trouble. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. Goins' son, C. L. Goins, of 722 Third avenue, west, the service being conducted by Rev. R. W. Stuckey of the Austinville Baptist church, of which Mr. Goins was a member. Interment followed late this afternoon at the cemetery.

The death of Mr. Goins followed closely after the death of his wife who died Feb. 19 last. Mr. Goins was born April 28, 1844, in Georgia. He removed to Alabama in 1902, purchasing a farm on the Danville road out from Albany. For the past several years Mr. Goins has retired from active farming, living with his son here. He was a Confederate soldier fighting four years under Gen. Nathan Bedford Forrest.

Mr. Goins is survived by four sons and one daughter. His sons are: D. V. Goins, of Birmingham; J. H. Goins, of Tusculum; O. R. Goins, of Memphis, and C. L. Goins, of Albany. His daughter is Mrs. Ed Taylor, of Russellville. These relatives were here for the funeral, as well as Mrs. Laur Bressley, of Tusculum, a niece of the deceased.

The death of Mr. Goins is deeply mourned by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances throughout Decatur and Albany.

DON'T TAKE A DAY OFF; TAKE LEMOLAC

And keep on working. When you take Calumet it makes you sick and causes you to lose time from your work. When you lose time you lose money, so Calumet is not only dangerous but expensive. Lemolac does not gripe, sicken or weaken and cause you to take a day off. Lemolac can not salivate you, as it is purely vegetable. Lemolac acts mildly on your liver, gently removes the bile and does not cause you any pain or uneasiness. Try a bottle at our risk—Owl Drug Co., and Thompson Drug Store.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, Hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists. The F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

"Goodnight Corns! We Use 'Gets-It!'"

3 Drops in 2 Seconds. That's All. "GETS-IT" Does the Rest. Never Fails.

"Really, I never could see how some few people use the most difficult and painful way they can find to get rid of corns. They'll wrap their toes up with bandages into a package that fills their shoes full of feet and makes corns so painful they've got to walk sideways and wrinkle up their faces. Or they use salves that eat right into the toe and make it raw and sore. They'll use plasters that make the corns bulge, or pick and gouge at their corns and make the toes bleed. Funny, isn't it? "GETS-IT" is the simple, modern wonder for corns. Just put 3 drops on a 't dries instantly. No pain, fuss or trouble. The corns continue to work loose and come off. Millions use nothing else. "GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in New Decatur and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Prentiss-Dillehay Drug Co.

"The Only Girl" Proves a Pleasing Production

"The Only Girl," the musical comedy adapted from Frank Mandel's "Wives," and produced by Joe Weber, made its initial appearance at the Masonic theatre last night and played to a pleased audience of good proportions. The presenting company was clean-cut and well balanced, distinguished for its "team work" as the advance notices stated, rather than for its individual stars. The Victor Herbert music was catchy and tuneful, although there were none of those airs that the audience carries home to whistle for the succeeding two days. The chorus was appealing, while the towns which adorned their comely persons were real works of art. The "eminent portion of the audience got some new ideas for dress modeling, as well as an insight into late modes of coiffure.

Arthur Burckley, who as "Kim," the cynical bachelor who witnessed the desertion of the three other members of his "quartette" to the ranks of matrimony, and then succumbed himself to the bewitching influence of "Wilson," his female collaborator, had an infectious laugh and also considerable personality, although Miss Grace Kennicott, who played the role of "Wilson" is the most gifted histrionically of any member of the company. Tom Burton, as "Bankie," an elongated gentleman with a Scotch accent, probably came next to Mr. Burckley as a local favorite among the male members of the cast. David R. Young, in the character part of "Saunders," a valet, was splendidly cast, as was Miss Esther Jarrett, as "Patsy," a soubrette. Ernest Woods and John Chandler, the other two members of the bachelor "four," were capable artists.

The plot is that of four bachelor friends who are wedded to their bachelorhood. One fateful evening three of the four drop into "Kim's" apartments to inform him that they have discovered the "only girl." A return engagement, six weeks later, is arranged, when "Kim" is to entertain three pairs of newly weds. In the meantime "Kim's" ears are haunted by the strains of the piano, coming from the apartment adjoining. He sends for the composer, thinking to find a man. The brother is only a pianist. It is Miss Wilson who writes the score. "Kim," after some hesitation, compromises with his convictions and agrees to collaborate with "Wilson" in the production of his next opera. The stipulation is that sex is to be ignored, and the man and woman are to work together merely as two "machines." The inevitable happens. The three friends are back to dinner six weeks later, to find "Kim" totally unprepared for their visit, time has passed so quickly. "Saunders" skirmishes up a dinner, and while the meal is being prepared the three brides swap gossip and make eminently cattish remarks. Then they exchange confidences, with the result that the party breaks up in a huff, and "Kim" is left to his loneliness. There is another scene, when the husbands return to apologize, and the wives return in quest of them. The finale is the surrender of "Kim," the cynic, to the charms of "Wilson," the machine. There is abundant opportunity for comedy work, which the company took good advantage of.
